DETAILED ACTION

Original claims 1-17 are canceled.

New claims 17-29 are added.

No claim is allowed.

Response filed in paper no.10 is hereby acknowledged. These amendments are not "Third preliminary amendments" as have been said, because action on original claims was mailed on 12/28/01. Therefore, these amendments filed on 11/7/02 are not preliminary amendments. Since original claims are canceled, the restriction requirement over original claims is moot. New claims are added but there is no mention of support for new claims in the response.

Specification

This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

Information Disclosure Statement

IDS is missing.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 18-29 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for the method of treating estrogenic deficiencies in menopausal women, does not reasonably provide enablement for method of achieving contraception by inhibition of ovulation as instantly claimed. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. Since there is a lack of predictability in pharmaceuticals and since there is no showing or data for the method as instantly claimed, one having skilled in the art would not be able to get any guidance to take advantage of the instant invention.

Art Unit: 1616

Applicant must show the support for the claimed invention.
